

Identification for the Chicago Area Consolidation Hub
One UPS Way (75th Street),
Hodgkins IL

A monolithic marker signals the presence of the newest UPS facility. The marker is located in front of the facility, projecting towards the Tri-State Tollway which brings over 300,000 persons by this location each day. From a distance, the intriguing sculptural form captures and holds one's attention as the familiar logo appears readable when one drives past.

The marker is distinctive, memorable and evocative of the progressive dynamic of UPS. The piece stands as a symbol of pride and commitment.
